

Jackson, New Hampshire

Jackson lies at the edge of the 750,000 acre White Mountain National Forest surrounded by spectacular natural beauty. It nestles in a landscape of covered bridges, white steepled churches, rolling farmland, mountain grandeur and cascading waterfalls. Recreation abounds in every season. . . from hiking, biking, horseback riding, rock climbing, canoeing, kayaking, fishing and golf to snowshoeing, ice skating, and cross-country and downhill skiing on some of the finest trails in the East.

Directions from Boston, RI, & CT: Follow I-95 to Portsmouth, NH, and take the Spaulding Turnpike North (NH Rte 16) exit. Take the turnpike North until it becomes NH Rte 16. Continue North on Rte 16 to West Ossipee, where NH Rte 25 will join from the West. Continue North on Rte 16 to Conway. In Conway, follow Rte 16 North, turning left at the 2nd light, staying on Rte 16. Continue on Rte 16 through North Conway. Follow the combined routes until Rte 16 turns right at a traffic signal at Glen (at an Irving Station). Follow Rte 16 North toward Gorham. The Inn is about 2.7 miles north of this intersection, and about 1/2 mile north of the covered bridge into Jackson Village. Our driveway is on the left side of the highway, just beyond a Sunoco station (2nd gas station you see after you leave Glen).

"The quiet, relaxed,
cozy atmosphere
makes this a great romantic retreat."

Imagine a haven of romantic tranquility, nestled deep in the heart of the White Mountains in the picturesque village of Jackson. A sparkling stream flows by the inn. Nearby hiking trails lead to the lofty summit of Mount Washington. Now imagine ideal spots to relax and unwind together ~ perhaps in the cozy game room and pub, the sunny sitting room, the atrium-enclosed hot tub overlooking the river, sauna, or in season, an outdoor heated swimming pool and gazebo.

Our twenty rooms and the separate rustic cottage, all named after local waterfalls, are beautifully appointed with period furnishings and offer warmth and quiet comfort to welcome you. All rooms have private baths, cable TV/DVD, clock radio CD players, and air-conditioning. Many have two-person Jacuzzis and/or balconies; almost all have traditional, gas, or electric fireplaces.

The Inn is a member of Select Registry, Distinguished Inns of North America as well as BedandBreakfast.com's Diamond Collection. It is a winner of BedandBreakfast.com Awards, and had been featured in Yankee Magazine, New Hampshire Magazine, New Hampshire To Do, The Boston Globe, Providence Journal, Inns Magazine and Arrington's Inn Traveler.

Explore

Awaken to clear mountain air and enjoy a gourmet country breakfast in our sunny dining room. Then explore the area's waterfalls, hiking and biking trails, the 100 mile Scenic and Cultural Byway, or enjoy golf, canoeing, fishing, or horseback riding. In winter, step out the door to world class cross-country ski trails, try snowshoeing, or choose from five alpine ski centers nearby. Finish the day with a romantic sleigh ride. For those seeking a more relaxing day, tax free shopping is nearby in North Conway or just enjoy the inn's distinctive ambiance and let your daily stresses slip away.
